An Opportunity of a Lifetime

THE HOLY MONTH OF RAMADAN

Praise be to Allah and may Allah raise the rank of our Prophet Muhammad and protect his nation from what he fears for it.

WHO MUST FAST

Every accountable Muslim is obligated to fast the month of Ramadan. Therefore the child is exempted from fasting. However, it is an obligation on the parents or the guardian of the child or children to order them to fast once 7 (lunar) years old providing their body can withstand that fasting, and they will not be harmed by it.

Additionally, for one to be obligated to fast, one must be of sound mind. Therefore Fasting is not obligatory on the insane person.

Fasting is not obligatory on a person whose body cannot tolerate fasting, due to either old age or a severe illness.

The fasting of a menstruating or post-partum bleeding woman is not valid; however they have to make up the missed days. Breaking the fast is permissible for the sick person, pregnant woman and the nursing woman who cannot bear the hardship of fasting. However, they are obligated to make up the missed days.

The one who is travelling a distance of two or more walking days has also the option of not fasting, provided one's travelling is not sinful.

INTEGRALS OF FASTING

1. Intending to fast the following day every night.
2. To abstain from sexual intercourse, masturbation, inducing vomit, apostasy and inserting anything with a volume into the head or body cavity through an open inlet, such as food or drink from dawn until sunset. One's pure saliva while still inside the mouth is excluded. One's fasting is valid as long as one does not become insane even if it were for a moment and one did not lose consciousness the whole day.

Note: It is obligatory upon all Muslims to preserve their faith in Islam and to protect it from apostasy (riddah), which invalidates and abolishes it may Allah, ta^ala protect us from this. Scholars of the four schools agreed that apostasy can be classified into three categories:

* Beliefs in the heart: such as believing that Allah is a body or that Allah occupies a place.

* Actions committed by certain parts of the body: such as prostrating to the sun and throwing the Mushaf in the trash.

* Sayings of the tongue: such as swearing at Allah, or any of the prophets.

It is obligatory on the one who commits riddah to return to Islam immediately by uttering the two shahadas, leaving off whatever caused riddah, to regret having apostatized, and to intend not to return to committing anything like it.

Benefit: The asthma medication (puffer) that the patient uses by inhaling it while fasting invalidates his fast. This verdict has been issued by Darul-Ifta' in Egypt (number 557 / 2004).

The month of Ramadan is a great opportunity for the person to gain a lot of reward which can be earned by performing this obligation in worship and obedience to Allah, and by performing a lot of Sunnah deeds. Let the person work hard during this great and blessed month in order to become among the pious Muslims.

تجنب الوقوع في الكفر بأنواعه الثلاثة كما هو مقرر في المذاهب الأربعة:

أ - الكفر الاعتقادي: كمن يعتقد أن الله جسم أو ضوء أو روح أو ينكر فرضية الصلاة أو الصيام أو يستحل شرب الخمر.

ب - الكفر الفعلي: كرمي المصحف في القاذورات.

ج - الكفر القولي: كمن يسب الله أو يسب نبيا من الأنبياء أو ملكا من الملائكة أو يستهزئ بالصلاة أو الصيام أو أحكام الدين.

فإن استمرار إيمان الصائم شرط لصحة صيامه، والكفر مبطل للصيام. فمن وقع في الكفر وهو صائم فسَدَّ صومه وعليه العود فوراً إلى الإسلام بالنطق بالشهادتين والإمسك بقية النهار احتراماً للصيام ثم قضاء هذا اليوم بعد العيد فوراً.

YR 1 STORY BOOK DELIGHT INCURSION

On Tuesday 16 May 2017, Year One students were greeted by Goldilocks who put on quite a show as she presented 'Storybook Delights'. From the moment the theatrical performance began, right until the end, children were captivated. Students interacted by singing along and moving to the beat. The moral of the performance was to listen to your parents and steer clear of strangers. It tied in beautifully with and reinforced concepts taught in this term's English and Drama units.

YR 2 SUSANNAH PLACE EXCURSION

During this term, students went on an exciting excursion to Susannah Place Museum. Throughout their visit they were given the opportunity to see what homes built in the 1844's looked like and compared how life used to be in the past to how it is now. They explored how people lived without electricity, plumbing and what children did for entertainment. Students also enjoyed pretending to live in the past and learned how people bought their groceries through role plays.
Mrs Jazzar and Miss Lalee

YR 3 BOTANY BAY EXCURSION

Students in Stage 2 visited Botany Bay on Monday for an interactive learning experience focusing on the first contact between James Cook and Aboriginal people. The excursion enabled students to discover how Aboriginal people survived in this environment, examining tools Aboriginal people made with the materials around them. Students then studied the European history through stories and exploring inside and outside the museum from the artefacts displayed. Students were selected to wear the uniforms of certain captains and crew members of the European ships which was a hands on experience allowing students to understand the information being presented. The students learnt how to play traditional Aboriginal games that used sticks and pine cones found in the environment. Overall, the excursion to Botany Bay was enjoyable and informative and will assist students with the completion of the History unit and assessment.
